PRESIDENT'S CORNER – 2023

By Fran Dailey

Dear HARA Members,

THANK YOU KINECTA!

Thank you to Keith Sultemeier and his wonderful Kinecta staff for the great BBQ provided for us on July 21st. Our members enjoyed it very much! As you can see, it is great to be a member of Kinecta!

Also, as you know, the HARA organization is kept alive by a small group of volunteers who meet once a month and do all the work involved in keeping this organization alive! We are finding that we need more help. If there are any members who would like to volunteer to help, it only takes a couple of hours each month and the results are great! Please contact any Board member for details.

Remember, our primary purpose is to Keep our Friendships Alive!

Cheers,

Fran

Darl Kay Stites

May 2, 1936 - February 23, 2023

Kay's career began with General Dynamics, a special project with Lockheed, and the majority of his working career at Hughes Aircraft, later purchased by General Motors. He was fortunate to work with many projects that positively impacted the defense industry and the different branches of the military. Later, some of that same technology he helped develop is currently benefiting us in our cars. Kay worked in Configuration Management beginning in 1967. He worked as a Project Manager, Program Manager and District Marketing Manager. Kay retired in 1992. Kay loved playing golf, playing poker with his friends, and also playing bridge. He was an avid hunter and gun collector.

Richard Alan "Dick" Greenblatt

August 14, 1924 - March 27, 2023

Dick worked at Hughes Aircraft from 1955-1992 as an engineer and international marketing manager, which sent him to Tokyo, Japan (where he fatefully met his future wife, Shizuko) to represent the far-east region, and to Los Angeles where he lived until his passing. His hobbies included collecting Asian antiques and weightlifting. He won several world, Pan-American and U.S. Grand Master weightlifting championships, most recently winning the U.S. Men's Grand Master Champion overall title in November of 2020.
